

Swine Flu Death Toll in India Rises to 450

Tuesday, October 27, 2009

New Delhi: Breaking News! Four more people died of Swine Flu on Tuesday, taking the death toll in India to 451. One death was reported from Maharashtra, while Puducherry reported the first Swine Flu casualty. Two people, who died of A H1N1 in Andhra Pradesh, were tested positive for Swine Flu today.

Maharashtra has now accounted for 195 Swine Flu deaths, followed by Karnataka (112), Andhra Pradesh (48) and Gujarat (39). 104 fresh cases of Swine Flu were reported across the country, taking the number of affected people to 13,545.

Kerala reported 42 cases, while Delhi and Karnataka reported 19 and 13 new cases respectively. 10 new cases of Swine Flu were detected in Maharashtra.

Labels: A H1N1, Swine Flu

http://www.breakingnewsonline.net/2009/10/swine-flu-death-toll-in-india-rises-to_27.html